ABOUT ME

I stand out as a responsible, creative, proactive, and communicative individual, passionate about continuous learning and exploring new areas. Over the past three years I broadened an already multidisciplinary background in marketing, sales, events, and language teaching with hands-on, self-taught expertise in virtual assistance, systems automation, digital content, and US real estate transaction support. I am dynamic, articulate, and enthusiastic about sharing knowledge, excelling in teamwork, with a strong inclination for leadership. I genuinely enjoy waking up early, practicing sports, playing the guitar, trying new recipes, and traveling.
